THE WOMEN.

Women who are gentle, courteous and kind.

Women who have not lost the ancient art of loving.

Women in whom the maternal instinct is not dried up

Women who consider it beneath their dignity to either smoke or drink.

Women who will never speak uncharitably of the less fortunate of their sex

Women who believe they have a higher destiny than a life of idleness and luxury.

THE MEN

Men who will put character above wealth

Men who will not lose their individuality in a crowd

Men who will be as honest in small things as in great things.

Men whose ambitions are not confined to their own selfish desires.

Men who are true to their friends through good report and evil report, in adversity as well as in prosperity.

Men who do not believe that shrewdness, sharpness, cunning and longheadedness are the best qualities for winning success.—Portland Oregonian.

One of the most peculiar of hobbies of King Edward's daughters is that indulged in by Princess Victoria, who is quite a skilled craftwoman in bookbinding. About three years ago she evinced a keen desire to become a hospital nurse, for which post she had qualified herself, and was only deterred from doing so by parental authority. In what way the princess came to take up bookbinding as a hobby is not known; but during the last two years she has devoted all her energies to becoming a skilled bookbinder, and such excellent progress has she made, that, at an exhibition a short time ago of book covers, she was awarded several prizes. It was not, however, until some time afterwards that Princess Victoria was the prize winner Her exhibits were entered in the name of "Miss Matthews," the name being assumed by the princess in order to insure her work being judged solely on its merits.

"Well," replied the prairie dog, "we can't suppress the rattlesnake evil, of course, but we regulate it."

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON

CHARLES W BUCK has turned up again. Buck is from Woodford county, Ky., and represented this country as minister to Peru during Cleveland's first administration. That is to say he was on the pay rolls to do so, but seems to have busied himself in collecting the various species of bugs instead of attending to the affairs of State. He got to be known as "Bugology Buck," and was the laughing stock of the diplomatic service. "Bugology Buck" lost out after four years and has since been grazing on very short pastures. While feeding on such short rations he "seen" a great light and fearing that democracy would never again get into power, became a shouting proselyte and this week turned up at the pie counter begging Roosevelt for another taste of the official flesh pots, but it is hoped he will be forced to tarry yet awhile in the desert. He got his first appointment under peculiar circumstances. In a moment of aberration or mayhap despair over the rush of applicants for office, Senator Beck signed Buck's application and Mr. Cleveland, desiring to compliment the distinguished Senator, lost no time in appointing Buck to the office he craved. When the newspapers announced that Buck had been appointed, Senator Beck said: "Who the h—l is Buck?" and would not believe that he had signed his application till presented with ocular proof of it. A proof that even great men will often attach their signatures to papers without proper consideration.

THE Grand Army men, or a good many of them, protested against the return of the Confederate battle flags on the ground that it would revive disloyal memories and arouse bitterness towards the government. For once Congress had the courage to ignore the demands of this great political organization for the purpose of getting more pensions and by practically a unanimous vote resolved that the tattered bunting be returned to its owners. And now comes Gen. Stephen D. Lee, commander-in-chief of the Confederate veterans, and gives the fears of the bellicose patriots a solar plexus blow. In his proclamation he thanks Congress for the restoration of the flags and expresses the satisfaction that fills the heart of every Confederate. "This action," he says "is fresh evidence that there are in our grand country now no sectional lines, no North, no South, no East, no West—but we are all Americans, devoted to one common country." And thus are guilty fears removed or shown to be groundless.

MRS. CHADWICK at last found some men that she could not hypnotize But she was not given a fair chance. Had she been able to have gotten at the jury one by one instead of collectively she would never have been convicted. But she is done for. Fourteen years in jail will take from her the power she seems to possess to separate a man from his money and she will have to fall back on common every day stealing.

A MISSOURI law reduces the pay of legislators from $5 a day to $1, after being in session a certain length of time. That time has arrived and the solons have already fixed a day for adjournment, feeling that they can make more planting corn than they can in the fruitless attempt to elect a U S Senator, now that Missouri is so hot after those who accept bribes.

THE government is said to be in possession of proof that cattle men of the Southwest have been reduced to pauperism by the beef trust's methods; and yet the so-called investigator, Commissioner Garfield, could find noth ing against the great monopoly. There are none so blind as those who will not see and Mr. Garfield has laid himself liable to very damaging criticism.

THE Hargises are in jail and fortunately are to be tried by the courts and not the Lexington daily newspapers, which continue to hound them, while begging money and sympathy for Caleb Powers. It is a wonder sensible people can be fooled by such republican mendicants.

THE Confederate Veteran Camp at Louisville will escort President Roosevelt when he visits that city next month. When he is surrounded by those grizzly remnants of the flower of the earth, we'll wager that the president was never in such good company before.

THE U S Senate will adjourn in a few days to give about half of its republican members a chance to be tried on the indictments against them and to give the other half time to go off on trumped up and useless junketing trips at the expense of the government.

LET disheartened democrats wipe their weeping eyes and take fresh courage. Bangor, Maine, has just elected a democratic mayor for the first time in 50 years. Verily that is a long lane that has no turning.

THE Casey County News has just rounded out the first year of its existence. Mr. Thomas is making a splendid paper of it.

LANCASTER.

Clarence Embry, who was on trial for killing H. Bassett, another Negro, was acquitted.

In the circuit court Wednesday Chas. Huffman was found guilty of trespass in taking a horse and buggy of one Dyehouse, and fined $25.

Joe Jordan, of Atlanta, bought a horse from Will Denny for $225, one from W. B. Burton for $200 and one from Forrest Stapp for $167 50. R. M. West bought a two-year-old colt from Virgil Kinnaird for $150.

Mr. L. M. Smith, of Harrodsburg, was sworn in as an attorney to practice at the Garrard bar, on Wednesday. Rev. B. N Falconer and family, of Oregon, are expected for a visit to relatives here soon. Mrs. J. Harvey Dunn and Miss Ella Dunn, of Brodhead, have returned home after a short visit to friends. Mrs. Fannie Lear is with her parents at Circleville, O., for a short visit. Lewis Gill is at home from Central University for a few days.

The Steam Hemp Brake machine which is being handled by the Universal Fiber Co., of Chicago, arrived Monday and has been given its first practical test in the field, all the testing having been done in the factory. The machine is made entirely of steel, there being no wood in its construction whatever. It is the invention of Shely Bros., of Chicago, formerly of Lexington, and gentlemen who have had long experience in the raising, handling and selling of hemp. They have spent several years in the construction of the machine. The stalks are fed in the front end of the machine and run through sidewise; the fiber is brought out at the other end, absolutely free from tangle and perfectly clean. Here it is caught by men who tie it into "hands." Old hemp men say the hemp is cleaned far better than it can possibly be done by hand, and the fiber is not broken at all. It runs at a rate equal to the work of 100 men per day, but the speed can be made even greater. Some of Chicago's most prominent financiers are officers and directors of the company. The fact that Lancaster was selected as a testing point is proof of Garrard's prominence in the hemp market and is due to the efforts of H A B Marksbury & Son. The machine is being tested on the farm of W. R. Cook, where a large crowd sees it every day. Mr. Marksbury invites hemp growers of Lincoln county to come and see it work.

POLITICAL.

Gov. Frazier, of Tennessee, was elected by acclamation on the first ballot to succeed the late W. B Bate as United States Senator.

Party lines will be strictly drawn on the question of ratifying the agreement with Santo Domingo. Senator Gorman gave notice that Senators McEnery, Foster and Clarke, who were suspected of a leaning toward the treaty, were pledged to vote against it, and the republicans are at a loss to know where to get the necessary two-thirds majority.

The republican county convention at Monticello made the following nominations: For representative, subject to the railroad of Clinton county, which is assured by previous agreement, A. L. Denney; judge, H. C. Kennedy; attorney, W. N. Filppin; clerk, J. S Sandusky; sheriff, S. L. Champion Liniment For Rheumatism.

Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the store keeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of any one suffering from that painful ailment when this linimentican be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

This story is told by Representative Sullivan, of Georgia. One day an old Negro asked his mistress, a lady of unusual education and refinement, to wri e a letter for him. "Write it to my gal."

"What shall I write?" asked his mistress, good-naturedly.

"Wal, I dunno; but just say 'notwithstanding.'" A few lines were written, worrying in the desired word.

"What next?"

"Wel Missus, jest tell her to souse bad spellin' and writin.'"

MASTIC MIXED PAINT

Can't Be Touched

for painting houses. The reason's plain. Mastic is the purest, therefore the most durable and economical. There is a whole string of "other fellows" claiming "just as good as Mastic" but they don't prove it. Maybe they can't. The analysis of Mastic is published. It's made of pure lead, zinc and linseed oil—the most durable kind of paint—and its purity is therefore unquestioned.

As purity means durability, the splendid wearing qualities of Mastic have given it the title of "The Kind That Lasts," and this title is backed up by our absolute guarantee. Mastic is made by

"A NOBLE OUTCAST."—A good audience witnessed the delightful little drama, "A Noble Outcast," presented by Miss Ella May Saunders' splendid company of local talent at Walton's Opera House Wednesday evening. The play is an intensely interesting one throughout and the characters were excellently represented. Following is the cast of characters: Gerald Weston—known as Jerry the Tramp—Geo. D. Florence; Col. Matthew Lee—a Southern Banker—Ed Ballard; James Blackburn—Lee's nephew—Joe Lin Coffey; Jack Worthington—Blackburn's rival—George Menefee; Mrs. Lee—wife of the Colonel—Miss Blanche VanDeveer; France—a disputed possession—Miss Kate Haselden; Sadie—Faithful but Free—Miss Mary Mobley. As Gerald Weston, Mr. Florence made a hit from the start and his every appearance on the stage brought applause. His was a difficult part, but he played it most creditably. Ed Ballard, as dignified Col. Lee, was exceedingly good. Joe Lin Coffey made a capital Jas. Blackburn and it is hard to believe that such an amiable young man could portray a villainous character so well. Jack Worthington had a true exponent in George Menefee, who had been before the footlights several times before in good parts. Miss Blanche VanDeveer, as the wife of Col. Lee, made an exceedingly handsome matron and played her role most satisfactorily. Miss Katherine Haselden's presentation of France would have done credit to an actress of years' experience and to her good work is due no little of the success of the entertainment. Miss Mary Mobley, as Sadie, acted her part well and was the recipient of much applause. Her "make-up" was exceptionally good. Manley Huey, as a big, bold, bad policeman, played his role to perfection. Between acts Miss Helen Beasley favored the audience with a solo, Miss Marie Mahony with a reading and Mr. Walter Traynor with a solo, all of which added pleasure to the evening. Miss Allie Huffman furnished delightful music for the occasion There are few, if any, better piano players in this section than Miss Huffman. The entire program was excellently rendered and Miss Ella May Saunders is to be congratulated and thanked for giving our theater goers so creditable a "show."

Fable Of The Wise Hen.

Once upon a time (very recently) a hen went upon a strike and refused to lay. Other hens followed her example and the scarcity of hen fruit which resulted, caused eggs to retail for something like 50 cent per dozen. In other words, strictly fresh eggs, laid by scab hens, were worth about five cents each in the shell. Even cold-storage eggs, which were deadly explosive and had to be handled with care, brought 30 cents.

The people got together and remonstrated with the hens, but it did no good. Finally an arbitration committee waited on the hens and tried to persuade them to go back to work. The arbitration committee pointed out that only the rich could afford to eat eggs, but the hens refused to work. The arbitration committee then told the hens that if they persisted in the strike they would bring race suicide on themselves

Then a wise old hen arose and spoke as follows:

"In the spring when us hens wish to sit the people give us porcelain doorknobs to sit on. If porcelain door knobs are as good as eggs to sit on, they ought to be as good to eat as eggs. Tell the people to eat porcelain doorknobs."

The arbitration committee could not answer this argument and departed in tears.

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Colonel John M. Fuller, of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo from Liver and Kidney trouble. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election To Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the council." This remedy is for sale by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

Red will annoy a turkey cock as much as a bull, but a sparrow will not let it disturb its mind. But if one flirts a blue rag in front of a caged sparrow's eyes he will go frantic with disgust. Sparrows and linnets, too, will refuse food offered them on a piece of blue paper, and dislike the appearance of any one wearing a blue dress. Medium light blue affects them most, and blue serge they scarcely mind at all. Thrushes and blackbirds object to yellow, but will use red or blue dried grasses left about their haunts to build the outer layers of their nests. Yellow seagrasses they will not use

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Charles F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Also good for burns and ulcers. Only 25c at Penny's Drug Store

A RED HOT SHOT.—Up here in the mountains the continued existence of the Louisville Herald as a political organ is tolerated only because of its peculiar fitness as a collector of funds with which to satisfy the avarice of attorneys for its pet assassins—fugitive and otherwise—and to manufacture campaign falsehoods for future use in emergencies.—Somerset Journal.

For An Impaired Appetite.

Loss of appetite always results from faulty digestion. All that is needed is a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will invigorate the stomach, strengthen the digestion and give you an appetite like a wolf. These Tablets also act as a gentle laxative. For sale by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

Most railway accidents in Italy are due to the bad state of the rolling stock. Many of the cars are from thirty to forty years old, and not infrequently the brakes refuse to work in an emergency.

DIGNITY DARE

No. 1982, Vol. 5, A. S. H. B.

Mahogany bay, black points, white only on left hind foot, 9 years old, 15 3¼ hands high weighs 1,200 pounds, strong, flat bone, heavy mane and tail, good back, with long, rangy, tapering neck, well set in high-mounted shoulders, a saddle horse head and ear on him a model under halter, always wears blue string in model rings, wonderful style in harness, a show horse sure. When one year old wore all honors in his class wherever shown; also the blue tie in sweepstake harness rings at same age When a 3-year-old he was shown 14 times and wore 13 blue strings; has never been defeated in fancy harness rings; has always been the victor in stallion stake ring, as a breeder, when shown with three or more of his get, for size, style and general conformation, and for all purposes He is a saddle horse with five distinct gaits, fast line acting racker, good in two walks and a nice loper; very positive in his trot under saddle and in harness, great all around action, as is required for an up-to-date sire of high priced sale horse for saddle or harness. He is a sure enough harness horse, graceful, stylish and fast; can show eighths in 18½ seconds, a 2:28 gait, with but little handling; did this last fall one year ago, after serving 91 mares in the spring. He is possessed of wonderful nerve and speed enough to get a trotter for track use or gentlemen's roadsters; large, handsome, stylish, heavy and strong enough to get carriage horses with a kindly disposition for all purposes of a family horse. He is the horse to sire parkers, stylish, graceful, substance and docility. It has been given up by horsemen that he is one of the most uniform breeders in Kentucky. He types his colts after himself; has never sired a sorrel colt. The most profitable horse for the farmer and small breeder to produce is the horse which serves the widest range of purposes well. His colts are show colts; of the very highest type, blue string winners from the oldest to the youngest.
